The living room is the area that stands out in the house, with its cool metallic lamp, and its wall art, that adds more personality to it. White sofas, wooden floors, and a lovely wooden stairs, that enhances the beauty and elegance of this room furthermore.

The dining room is no less appealing with the use of the contrast of black and white with removable cool curtains, in a harmonious way, simply elegant and charming.

The kitchen is ultra modern, with its dark grey tiles, a super hop bar stools, and the matching lamps hanging from the ceiling.

The bedroom is a uniquely conceived space with its own dressing room and bathroom. Its large windows, with views over the garden, lets in the changing colors and light of the passing hours that playfully reflect in the ample mirrored wall above the beds headboard; a light filled and elegant environment modern bathrooms, decorative mirrors, wooden floors in one bathroom, a touch of wall art paintings, white marble floors in the other, just another sleek space in this house.

Overall this house inspires tranquility without being boring, and just brings out happiness and freedom, and it is a house that has reached its potential.●
